Optional Tours

RIVER TAXI TOUR & USS ORLECK NAVAL MUSEUM & LUNCH

Thursday April 24th

1100-1600

Price $65

Take a journey with us along the banks of downtown Jacksonville as we look for dolphins and explore the past, present, and future of Florida's original port city. Discover what makes Jacksonville an important part of Florida's history. See how the brackish waters of the St. John's River provide a home for dolphins, manatees, alligators, and more. After we finish our tour on the river we will visit the USS Orleck and Naval Museum. Jacksonville Naval Museum's goal is to represent a larger part of Jacksonville's Navy history. The USS Orleck, a Gearing Class destroyer with 18 battle stars is one of the most distinguished ships of all time and the most since the end of World War II! As a Gearing Class destroyer, she will represent the 16 past Gearing Class destroyers that called Mayport home. Additionally, having served in the Cold War, Korean War, & Vietnam War she will not only represent the rich Naval Heritage of Jacksonville but also honor all military veterans in the Region. A buffet lunch is included in this tour.

ST. AUGUSTINE CITY TOUR

Friday April 25th

0900-1600

Price $75

Welcome to St. Augustine. On this driving tour of the oldest city in the United States! With a nickname like the 'Ancient City, it's a safe bet that, at some point, you'll be touching history that spans almost 500 years! There are many beautifully restored and preserved examples of the city's past everywhere, especially its historic district. There will be several stops for photo opportunities so don't forget to bring your camera. Lunch will be on your own and there will be time to explore several of the shops.
